Financial Services Guide

This guide contains important information about:

- The services we offer you
- How we, our licensee and our associates are paid
- What associations or relationships we have with financial product issuers
- Our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you access them

Who is our licensee?

To provide financial advice an adviser is required to either hold an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) or be authorised to provide advice by an AFSL holder. We have chosen to be licensed by Hunter Green Pty Ltd. Hunter Green is 100% privately owned and holds its own AFSL. Hunter Green is responsible for ensuring the advice we provide meets the various legal and regulatory requirements and provides us with Professional Indemnity insurance and dispute resolution systems.

For Hunter Green's services, systems and insurances we pay a monthly fee and may also pay an amount equivalent to up to 3.30% of any remuneration or commissions they, or we, receive for providing you with our advice or services.

Lack of Independence

Hunter Green, Mackay Private Sam Mackay and Will Mackay cannot call themselves independent because Hunter Green and/or its authorised representatives receive commissions from the sale of risk insurance products that are not fully rebated to clients and may from time to time receive gifts or other benefits (for example meals at conferences or training sessions).

Do we have any relationships or associations with Financial Product issuers?

Associations

We at Mackay Private and Hunter Green Pty Ltd are privately owned and are not part of any company which issues financial products. There are no ownership ties or other relationships with any financial service product provider which might unduly influence which financial products we are authorized by Hunter Green to recommend.

Alternative Forms of Remuneration Register

Licensees and their representatives are required to maintain a register of any form of alternative remuneration paid or received with a value between $100 and $300. This register is available for your inspection on request.

What kinds of financial products are we authorised to provide?

I am authorised provide financial product advice and deal in a financial product, to retail and wholesale clients, in relation to the following financial products:

- securities – meaning shares listed on the Australian Stock Exchange;
- superannuation, whether self-managed, personal super or corporate super;
- interests in managed investment schemes including investor directed portfolio services – these are managed funds, master trusts and “wrap” accounts;
- standard margin lending facilities (accredited advisers only);
- retirement savings accounts (“RSA”) products;
- debentures, stocks or bonds issued or proposed to be issued by a government;
- deposit and payment products; and
- life products including investment life insurance products and life risk insurance products;

If you do not wish to receive our advice, we may deal on your behalf by carrying out your instructions. If you do not obtain advice, you face the risk that the Financial Product/s you select will not fully take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs.

How do I pay for Mackay Private advice?

Mackay Private does not charge a fee for initial meetings with prospective clients. A 'Terms of Engagement' letter will be presented to and accepted by a client before any fees are payable.

Mackay Private has a flexible fee structure for clients, offering a fixed dollar fee or percentage asset-based fee for the costs of initial/one-off Advice and ongoing Advice.

Below are some other fees that may be payable should you engage with Mackay Private. All fees and commissions are inclusive of GST and the fees could be greater than those disclosed below in complex cases. In these instances, we will inform you of the exact fee payable promptly in writing.

Initial consultation	This meeting provides you with an opportunity to view our service offering and decide as to whether you would like to initiate the financial planning process. This meeting generally takes 30 minutes and there is no charge.
Advice preparation	An Advice preparation fee will vary depending on individual circumstances and the complexity of the Advice provided. This fee, percentage based or fixed dollar value, will be agreed with your Adviser through a terms of engagement letter and be no greater than 5% of the initial value of the funds under advice.
Implementation	If you proceed with the Advice, you may be charged an implementation fee. This covers the time spent implementing the financial plan and/or transactions. This fee, percentage based or fixed dollar value, will be agreed with your Adviser through a terms of engagement letter and be no greater than 5% of the funds under advice. If we recommend you acquire investments using borrowed funds, then your implementation fee will be no greater than a fixed dollar amount of $27,500.
Ongoing fee for advice	If you elect to pay a fee for the ongoing review of your financial planning strategy, the ongoing fee is based on the complexity of ongoing advice and the services provided, including frequency of reviews. This fee, percentage based or fixed dollar value, will be agreed with your Adviser through a terms of engagement letter and be no greater than 5% of the ongoing value of your funds under advice each year.
Ad hoc advice	If you don't have an ongoing service arrangement and require ongoing advice on an ad hoc basis, a fee based on time charged at $330 per hour may apply.
Execution only service	Where we provide a financial service to facilitate buying or selling of a specific financial product as instructed by you, a one-off fee may apply.
Stamping fees	We may receive stamping fees from issuer companies for raising capital or debt on behalf of that company. If so, the amount will be disclosed to you at the time of making the investment.

How can you give us instructions?

You may tell us how you would like to give us instructions. For example, telephone or other means such as e-mail.

What information should you provide to receive personalised advice?

You need to provide us with a list of your personal objectives, details of your current financial situation and any relevant information, so that we can offer you the most appropriate advice possible.

You have the right not to tell us, if you do not wish to. However, if you do not, the advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation.

We are also legally required to verify your identity, so we will ask to see your passport, driver's license or other identity documents. You should read the warnings contained in the Statement of Advice carefully before making any decision relating to Financial products.

Other documents you will be given if you receive advice from us

When we give you financial advice you will be provided with a Statement of Advice (SoA) which will contain details about:

- the advice provided, including the basis on which it was given
- fees, commissions and other benefits
- any associations we have with Financial Product Issuers or parties which may have influenced the advice we give you.

After receiving our initial advice, a Record of Advice (RoA) may be produced & retained by us instead of an SoA if there have been no significant changes in your personal circumstances or the basis of the advice since the last SoA was provided. You can request a copy of any RoA at any time.

If we recommend to you a particular Financial Product we will give you information about the particular Financial Product—a Product Disclosure Statement—to help you make an informed decision about the Financial Product.

What information do we maintain in your file and can you examine it?

We will retain copies of your identity documents and we will maintain a record of your personal profile including details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain records of any recommendations made to you, including the initial Statement of Advice, and any subsequent Statements of Additional Advice and Records of Advice provided to clients receiving our ongoing service. Copies of these can be requested either verbally or in writing.

We are committed to ensuring the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of the relevant privacy policy is available on our licensee's website or by contacting us. If you wish to examine your file, please ask us. We will make arrangements for you to do so.
